

arriving by car

You drive over Bordeaux to Spain purely. On the AP 8 / AP 1 (E80) towards St. Sebastian. You remain on the AP 1 or go to the A1 towards Burgos (depending on the time and inclination), from there to Salamanca (A 62 / E80) to the Portuguese border.

After the Portuguese border, continue on the A 25 towards Guarda - Viseu - Aveiro. There change onto the A 17 towards Lisbon to Monte Redondo.

At the traffic gyro LEFT (2nd exit) out (direction Bajouca). After the bridge turn (crossing the highway) 1st right CASAL NOVO!

In the village turn right the 1st road after the old chapel (right you see after 20m a wooden house) always following the asphalt downhill on the 1st small intersection over, after 20m at the fork keep right (left you see newly built ochre houses after 20m). Continue straight on, then you arrive directly to my house.

This is the fastest route, not the most beautiful!

Nice TRIP: from Tordesillas continue on the N 620 to Portugal (Approximately parallel the highway) and then via IP 5 direction Mangualde, N234 A35 direction Coimbra

Alternatively, the blue or green route if you have really MUCH TIME

If they have PLENTY time: From Guarda towards Coimbra on the N 17 (narrow but very beautiful scenery):

From Coimbra continue on the A1 / N 1 (depending on your preference and time)
To Lisbon (A1 till Pombal), change onto the A14 to Figueira da Foz and from there onto the A17 to

Monte Redondo

In the village turn right the 1st road after the old chapel (right you see after 20m a wooden house) always following the asphalt downhill on the 1st small intersection over, after 20m at the fork keep right (left you see newly built other houses after 20m). Continue straight on, then you arrive directly to my house.

If you are driving on the N1 towards Lisbon from Pombal:

Approximately 8 km after Pombal go right towards Carnide. Always straight ahead till Bajouca. In Bajouca at the traffic gyro (Large jar in the middle). Turn left (2. out) out of the traffic gyro and continue straight ahead (the street guide traffic sign turn left). You come through a valley, go back up the mountain. Shortly thereafter you see right side a small mini Mercado.

at the fork keep right (left you see newly built other houses after 20m). Continue straight on, then you arrive directly to my house.

Arriving from Northern Portugal (Vigo, Braga etc.), from Porto (A1 – A 29 - A 25 - A 17)

either the N1 or the A1 to Pombal, alternatively still provides the path over Figueira da Foz (usually Fig. Da Foz) on the A 14 from Pombal / change in Fig. Da Foz on the A 17 to Monte Redondo Alternately from Figueira da Foz take the N109 towards Leiria. Advantage: you pass an Intermarché for shopping just before Guia. In Monte Redondo then left towards Bajouca / Casal Novo.

Crossing the motorway turn right to Casal Novo. In the village turn right the 1st road after the old chapel (right you see after 20m a wooden house) always following the asphalt downhill on the 1st small intersection over, after 20m at the fork keep right (left you see newly built other houses after 20m). Continue straight on, then you arrive directly to my house.

If you own a navigation system: Casal Novo (in Monte Redondo = 2425-606) Portugal (CAUTION - are many places call Casal Novo!!!)
Rua do Cargal - directed to the target.

Otherwise map24.de or any other distance providers on the Internet

Have a good trip
